TILL THE RAIN

Lyrics & Music by Colin McCrow F#m A long time ago, the Earth was dry, No rain falling on the ground, And when you looked up to the skies, Blue sky could only be found, F#m B AEG Blue sky could only be found. Ε F#m F Along came a man, God thought was good, Not many of them around, F#m He told old Noah to build an ark, So He could clean up the ground, F#m AEG So He could clean up the ground. Chorus Fm7 Am7 D7 G People where wicked, Living in sin And God wasn't pleased with the world, Am7 D7 He looked on them eyes filled with pain, He had to clean up the world, D7 He had to clean up the world. F#m So he worked on the ark of God, One twenty years of toil, F#m F Flood came along and lifted the ark, To land on much better soil,

CCL 13216 Used by Permission

F#m B

To land on much better soil.

© 1976 LeiEz Music, CCLI Song No. Not Listed, Source: Early Songs

Till The Rain Chords

